

Khamaal Collymore

Description

Back to all Team Members

khamaal@spcaribbean.com

Prior to joining the firm, Khamaal was a partner in the litigation department of an established Barbados law firm. He is experienced in trial and appellate advocacy and has appeared as lead advocate before the High Court and Court of Appeal of Barbados, as well as arbitral and labour tribunals.

Khamaal also has experience as in-house counsel at a leading regional bank. This blend of experience enables him to understand and deliver what commercial clients require in order to make key decisions and achieve strategic objectives.

Khamaalâ??s focus is on civil and commercial disputes. He also has experience of offshore digital asset issues. Including regulation and related enforcement.

Select Engagements

- Proceedings arising from sovereign debt restructuring
- Anti-suit proceedings in the insolvency context
- Court proceedings in support of international commercial arbitration
- Cross-border counterfeit pharmaceutical case
- Judicial review of refusal to register business name for hotel
- Defending minority shareholder challenge in the context of a takeover bid
- Proceedings against company directors for breach of fiduciary duties
- Constitutional claim in respect of assessment of compensation for compulsory acquisition of property
- Proceedings arising from website fraud against global luxury real estate brand

- Defending claim by neighbouring owners asserting rights over valuable beachfront land
- Defending claim asserting commercial estate property was owned by partnership of which deceased was a partner

Credentials

- Barbados
- British Virgin Islands
- Guyana
- Montserrat
- St Kitts & Nevis
- Turks & Caicos Islands

Education

University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, LLB

Norman Manley Law School, Jamaica, LEC

Professional & Community Involvement

Commonwealth Lawyers Association

Recent writing engagements:

Commonwealth Lawyers Association newsletter, August 2024, Normalised exceptions â?? the tale of the TCIâ??s 12-year mandatory minimum sentence under the Firearms Ordinance.

Commonwealth Lawyers Association newsletter, June 2023, Mandates no substitute for sound judgment: 4 reminders for banks from Caye International Bank v. Rosemore International Corp [2023] CCJ 4 (AJ) BZ.

Back to all Team Members