

Sheda Handfield

Description

Back to all Team Members

Shedsa@spcaribbean.com

Sheda is a lawyer in our commercial law team. She speaks German and has compliance experience in the software and financial services industries in Austria and Germany.

The main focus of her compliance experience is in respect of Anti-Money Laundering issues. She undertook her training at the Attorney General's Chambers in the Turks and Caicos Islands.

Sheda had previously worked for Deloitte & Touche, PwC, and American Express. She also interned in The Hague at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, where she was part of the defence team for Ratko Mladić, a former military officer.

Select Engagements

Transaction support in relation to purchase and development of large waterfront development land in North Caicos

Assisting with negotiations with Invest TC and TCIG in relation to developer concessions for boutique hotel development in Providenciales

Credentials

Turks & Caicos Islands

Education

Nottingham Law School, LLM, LPC

Steinbeis University – Berlin, LLM

Nottingham Law School, LLB

Middle Tennessee State University, MA

Michigan State University, BA

Community Engagement

Commonwealth Lawyers Association
Women in Law, Turks and Caicos Islands

Back to all Team Members